INVITATION TO AUTHORS

WICS Journal invites scholars, business people and individuals interested in China to submit manuscripts for publication. The main focus of the Journal is public management, public institutions and economic issues relating to the US and PRC; other topics will also be considered. Manuscripts in 3 copies should be typed, single spaced and consist of approximately 20 pages. Footnotes should be typed at the bottom of each page using the Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press). Opinion editorial articles should not be submitted. Manuscripts should be sent to the above address. Electronic copy of the manuscript should be e-mailed to wics@wics-usa.org

WICS Journal is scheduled to be published three times in 2007 and quarterly in 2008. Individual issues are $30.00. Subscribers should indicate the number of issues they desire and pay accordingly. Check should be payable to: The Washington Institute of China Studies.

Special thanks to Charles Bingman, Dr. Dale Draper, and Wang, Xueyan for assistance in putting together this issue of the Journal. Without their assistance this Journal would not have been possible.
