INVITATION TO AUTHORS

WICS Journal invites scholars, business people and individuals interested in China to submit manuscripts for publication. The main focus of the Journal is public management, public institutions and economic issues relating to the US and PRC; other topics will also be considered. Manuscripts in 3 copies should be typed, single spaced and consist of 15-20 pages. Footnotes should be typed at the bottom of each page using the Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press). Opinion editorial articles should not be submitted. Manuscripts should be sent to the above address. Electronic copy of the manuscript should be e-mailed to wics@wics-usa.org

SUBSCRIPTION

WICS Journal is scheduled to be published quarterly in 2008. Individual issues are $30.00. Beginning in 2008, the annual subscription is $100.00. Checks should be payable to: The Washington Institute of China Studies.

Special thanks to Dr. Dale Draper, He, Jianping and Wang, Xueyan for assistance in putting together this issue of the Journal. Without their assistance this Journal would not have been possible.
